

Welcome to the Singing Arts

Where everyone belongs

Through listening, learning, performing, celebrating, and
sharing, we discover
the joy of singing together.

Enjoy Your Singing Season!

Two signature series.
One unforgettable season.

Experience the warmth of Arias After Work! and discover the excitement of Open Opera with the [cōsa] Opera Company.

Sept. 19 Arias After Work! September

Sept. 27 Open Opera: Acis & Galatea

Oct. 24 Arias After Work! October

Nov. 1 Open Opera: Satanelle

Dec. 12 Arias After Work! December

Feb. 13 Arias After Work! February

Mar. 21 Open Opera: Esther

Apr. 24 Arias After Work! April

Jun. 12 Arias After Work! June

Jun. 13 Open Opera: The Beauty Stone

Learn more
cosacanada.org

OUR TORONTO!

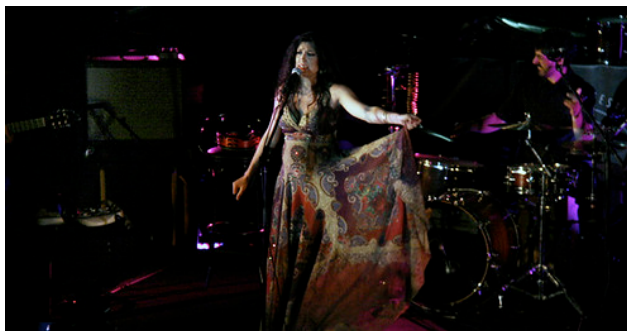

Photo: Pedro Guzman

Celebrate Toronto through music. Hear outstanding artists sharing the musical traditions of Türkiye, China, Mexico, the Arab World, and beyond.

Share it in the Heart of [cōsa]

Share the experience with friends.
Bring your family.
Everyone belongs.

[cōsa] creates heartfelt connections
through welcoming access to the Singing Arts. Everyone can see, hear, feel, and deeply know our shared stories.

Stay Connected

cosacanada.org
info@cosacanada.org

A Great Time
For Everyone
Every Time

2026-2027

Discover the Joy of Singing

ARIAS AFTER WORK!

OPEN OPERA!

The COSA Opera Company

EARLY MUSIC MAGIC!

The Original Epic Soundtracks

Step into the sound world of the Middle Ages, the Renaissance, and the Baroque. Experience music that has inspired listeners for centuries and discover why these remarkable works continue to move, challenge, and delight audiences today.

This Season

Handel's Acis & Galatea Sept. 27 (Open Opera)
Handel's Esther Mar. 21 (Open Opera)

Cavalier Cabarets

Watch cosacanada.ORG for additional Early Music Magic! performances with lutenist John Edwards and Musicians in Ordinary.

Don Giovanni with [cōsa], the Hamilton Philharmonic Orchestra, & Bravo Academy of Performing Arts. Photo: Sam Moffatt

Arias After Work! Photo: François Labbé

OPEN OPERA!

Experience Opera from the Inside

Whether you sing with the chorus or experience the performance from the audience, conductor Darryl Edwards invites you to the Open Opera! Experience.

Prepare with [cōsa]'s rehearsal resources, meet distinguished guest artists, and experience opera in a welcoming new way.

Guest Artist Conversations

- Jamie Hillman — Sept. 27
- Sandra Horst — Nov. 1
- Charles Heller — Mar. 21
- Michael Patrick Albano — Jun. 13

The Afternoon

1:30–3:00 Chorus Rehearsal

3:15–3:45 Guest Artist Conversations

4:00 Performance (80 minutes)

*Handel's Acis & Galatea, Sep. 27

Balfe's Satanella, Nov. 1

Handel's Esther, Mar. 21

Highlights: Sullivan's The Beauty Stone, June 13

*College St. Church. 452 College St./Bathurst

Arts & Letters Club, 14 Elm St./Yonge

More Ways to Experience [cōsa]

Arias After Work!

A favourite Toronto after-work classical gathering. Enjoy remarkable performances, meet fascinating artists, and end your day inspired.

Arias After Work! Photo: Ruping Tai

[cōsa] Creative!

Inspired Ideas. Unexpected Music. Every [cōsa] Creative! event begins with imagination. Through artist-inspired themes, seasonal celebrations, and inventive programming, these distinctive concerts reveal both new and familiar music in fresh, engaging, and surprising ways.

Feel at Home...

Enjoy live music with the people and places that matter most. Choose from customized programs featuring opera, operetta, musical theatre, and beloved classics. Share an intimate musical experience with friends, family, neighbours, or colleagues—and create memories together.

Catch the spirit when the host is

Lucy Boguski Opera Night at George

Sylvia's Soirées

Concerts at Sandringham •

Music AT THE EDGE!

and when the host is YOU!

Text/Call: (647) 272-6232